Rossford Business Association

Meeting Minutes May 25, 2011

Thank you to Cindi & Jeannine for holding our meeting at the Rossford Library and Sam's Club for the breakfast treats (and wonderfully brewed coffee) for sponsoring our breakfast meeting today.

Old Business

Ray spoke on the updates for our new Directory. We still have several spots available and remember to review your website information. This is what will be used for the new directory. Brenda reminded us about the E-Newsletter your 100 words or less ad information must be sent to her by end of day. The scholarship winners were announced and each recipient was awarded $1,000 and the winners were Melanie Maloney and Phillip Balla. Ray and Beth, with the CVB, provided us with an update on the activities regarding news on website developments and marketing studies currently being addressed by the committee.

New Business

Cindi briefly discussed the upcoming "Fun at the Fountain" on September 3, 2011 6:00 -11:30 pm and mentioned that volunteers will be needed to make this a success. We will be looking for sponsors again this year to help with the cost of the fireworks. Coach Drusback, the Rossford Varsity Football coach introduced himself and spoke about his role and the teams' role in the community and his visions for the players.

Guest Speaker – Charles Chambers – Small Business Development Center Counselor

Mr. Chamber spoke to the members regarding the services provided by the Chamber at no cost to small businesses in the Toledo surrounding area. The chamber provides help to determine the needs and to recognize where small businesses need help. They have financial, educational and marketing programs available to help guide owners with the –Ins and outs – of running a business.

City Report

New business coming to our area includes Five Guys at the Crossroads area, Medical offices off of Grassy Creek and a new Chinese Restaurant in downtown.

Our next meeting will be held June 29 @ Noon. The Hosts will be Bay Park Hospital.

Respectfully submitted – Ellen Finkbeiner RBA Secretary/ Toddlers Schools
